WHAT IS A MUTUAL FUND?

A mutual fund is a pool of money invested by people with similar investment objectives. People who invest money become unitholders of the mutual fund ("Unitholders"). Unitholders share the mutual fund's income, expenses, and any gains or losses the mutual fund makes on its investments in proportion to the number of the units they own.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS OF INVESTING IN A MUTUAL FUND?

Mutual Funds own different types of investments such as stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and cash depending upon the investment objectives of the particular mutual fund. The value of these investments will change from day to day, reflecting changes in interest rates, economic conditions, and market and company news. As a result, the value of a mutual fund's units may go up or down on a daily basis, and the value of your investment in a mutual fund may be more or less when you redeem it than when you purchased it.
